

A New Member for the Constitutional Working Party

What's Happening

We have an opening on the Constitutional Working Party. Any board member can volunteer for this role.

What You'll Be Doing

This group was established to review the WDCO Constitution and recommend any necessary amendments to the Board.

The need for amendments tends to arise out of board proceedings though simply reading through it quickly identifies some changes.

Who Qualifies

- Can you make it to irregular/fortnightly committee meetings
- Are you blessed with common sense

How to put your name forward

Write us a note (250 words max) that tells us:

1. Why you think you'd be good at this task
2. What relevant experience you bring to the role
3. How you'll make sure the constitution provides checks and balances but enables board business to proceed

What Makes a Strong Candidate

When voting for the new member, board members will think about:

- Having a mix of people on the committee that reflects our community
- How well you understand how the board works
- Your track record of working well with others, especially on WDCO matters

The four current WDCO members are - Oonagh Gormley, Barbara Panuzzo, Hillary Britton, Adrian Essex – you will be the sixth

Key Dates

- February 20th: We'll discuss the role at the Board meeting
- March 13th: Best to get your application in by this date
- March 20th, 2025: We'll hold the election at the Board meeting
- You can apply right up until the 20th March at the Board Meeting
